

Call for applications: apply now to join the Integrity Council Governing Board as a market participant member (open to applications from candidates from Asia, Africa and Latin America)

The Integrity Council (ICVCM) is an independent, non-profit governance body. We set and enforce the independent global integrity threshold for the voluntary carbon market, drawing on best available science and world-renowned expertise. Our 10 Core Carbon Principles (CCPs) and rigorous Assessment Framework aim to enable a high integrity carbon market to mobilise finance at scale into urgent greenhouse gas emission reductions and removals, and support the Sustainable Development Goals and the achievement of the objectives of the Paris Agreement.

We are now seeking applications from experienced professionals who are currently active participants in the carbon markets¹ to join our Governing Board. Applications are open to potential candidates from Asia, Africa and Latin America.

The Integrity Council for the Voluntary Carbon market is committed to fostering an inclusive environment that promotes and values diversity. We harness a collaborative and respectful working environment and are seeking individuals to join the Governing Board who thrive within this working culture.
